PROGRAM NOTES

AWARD WINNING PROGRAMS

Two Public Affairs programs produced at WBAI in 1972 won national awards. A Month of Bloody Sundays, a Report from Northern Ireland won the Overseas Press Club Citation for foreign news documentary. The program was produced by Paul Fischer and Neal Conan. The other, Asbestos; The Deadly Mineral, produced by Bonnie Bellow and Nick Egleson won an award from the Corporation for Public Broadcasting. For both of these award winning programs David Rapkin handled technical production and James Irsay designed the music. Bloody Sunday can be heard on July 19 at 8:00 p.m. and Asbestos on July 24 at 8:45.

CIVIL WAR SEMINAR

This summer (and into the fall) the Public Affairs Department is presenting a rebroadcast of a full semester seminar on The Civil War and Reconstruction. Last fall Professor James Shenton of Columbia University gave the course live from Studio A. The seminar, incidentally, is subtitled: The Subversion and Overthrow of the First American Republic, The Coming of the Civil War and Reconstruction. For those of you who were unable to attend these Monday and Friday afternoon classes on the air last fall, we are happy to announce that the course can be heard each Thursday and Friday night at 11 p.m. Reading lists are available on request. Write to "Civil War," WBAI, 359 East 62nd St. New York, N.Y., 10021.

WATERGATE TO THE END

If the Watergate Hearings continue into July and August, as rumor has it that they will, WBAI will bring you live coverage.

2:15 THE GREAT POPULATION EXPLOSION HOAX. An interview with Robert Katz. Jan Legnitto interviews Robert Katz author of A Giant in the Earth–a book to unsettle Malthusian prophets of starvation, advocates of zero population growth, and some ecology enthusiasts. Katz, a social historian, claims that new high-yield grain seeds, together with adequate fertilizers and extended cultivation, can multiply food supplies 150-fold and feed at least 500 billion people. Even the grimmest exponential demographic extrapolations would take a while to reach that figure. What's more, Katz condemns the "too many Asians" attitude of certain zero population growth advocates, who, he claims, are backed by powerful industrial interests who are attempting to control the world's natural resources. Produced by Jan Legnitto.

Would you spend $500 on a package tour to Lompoc when the same trip could be purchased for $35 elsewhere? Would you buy your child a toy which could blow up in his face for $10 when you could buy a similar toy which merely causes a serious gash for $5? Would you buy a $450 color t.v. set that emits more radiation than one selling for only $200? Huh?

3:45 UNDERGROUND: The life of a political fugitive. Tom, the subject of this program, participated in a raid on a draft board in Chicago in 1969. He and his cohorts were arrested: as they watched files they had removed burn in an alley. Several months later, however, Tom went underground. He has been there since. In this program he talks about his life and the things he has learned about living beyond the law. His sister, his parents, high school classmates and teachers express their reactions to his chosen life—some of them are kind, others not so kind. Tom and his family talk about the tension that has arisen between Tom and his brother—his brother notifies the FBI whenever Tom is in touch with him. Tom's life has been complicated in the last year by the suspicion among some of his former friends that he is a police agent. Produced by Nick Egleson with Paul Cowan. Production assistance by Abraham Aig.

8:00 DOES WORKMEN'S COMPENSATION REALLY COMPENSATE? A leader in the establishment of workmen's compensation commented on the law by saying, "a poor law, properly administered is better than no law at all". Many working people disagree. Not only is the law a poor one, it is improperly managed and provides only minimum reparations for the injured or ill worker. This program takes a look at just what workmen's compensation is doing for the people it is supposed to protect. Produced by Bonnie Bellow.

Reports on the effects of the Master Plan on life in New York City in general, and specifically in terms of the housing crisis. Beverly Spatt, a former member of the N.Y.C. Planning Commission, and now a vocal critic, tells what's in store for city dwellers. Her generalizing analysis is documented in human terms by a case study of tenants on East 19th Street who have been fighting eviction from their homes by Columbus Hospital, the landlord. They tell of their two-year fight to save their apartments from becoming a parking garage, and demonstrate the effects of institutional planning under the Master Plan on the street level. The WBAI Folio is not sold, it is sent free to each subscriber to the station. The program listings are published every month as a service to subscribers who support our non-profit, noncomercial station at the annual rate of $24.00 (student and retired persons subscription rate: $15.00 a year). All donations are tax deductible and checks should be made payable to "Pacifica—WBAI."

WBAI is on the air twenty-four hours a day. Our transmitter is located in the Empire State Building, and we broadcast with an Effective Radiated Power of 5.4 KW (horizontal) and 3.85 KW (vertical). Power equivalent to 50,000 watts at 500 feet. Antenna: 1223 feet above average terrain. Height above sea level: 1515 feet. Frequency: 99.5 fm. The studios and offices are located at 359 East 62nd Street, New York, N Y. 10021. Phone: (212) 826-0880.

WBAI is owned and operated by the Pacifica Foundation, a non-profit corporation. The other Pacifica stations are KPFA, 2207 Shattuck Ave., Berkely, California 94704; KPFK, 3729 Cahuenga Blvd., Los Angeles, California 91604, and KPFT, 618 Prairie St., Houston, Texas 77002. Subscriptions are transferable.

The duration of programs scheduled is approximate. The dates after listings indicate past or future broadcast. The program listings are copyrighted (Copyright 1973, WBAI) and are not to be reprinted without written permission. Extracts may be reprinted for highlight listings. "Pacifica" and the dove are trademark, 1973.

WBAI is not responsible for the return or safety of unsolicited tapes or manuscripts.
